

Refunds

Avidity Training and Development undertakes to provide the services/training and assessment as outlined in the training proposal or qualification/unit of competence to be delivered. Where a fee is payable by a learner, an invoice will be provided AFTER completion of the unit. Avidity Training and Development does not generally charge any fees in advance. In the instance where a fee has been paid and a refund is requested, it must be requested in writing to the Management of Avidity Training & Development, 55 Elizabeth Street, Launceston, Tasmania, 7250.
